

PORTABLE FAIRWAY MAT

Our Portable Fairway Mats are perfect for golfers looking for top-quality artificial grass for high-performance golf applications. Made from premium 100% nylon, these mats give you a natural feel without catching your club. They are the result of years of research with leading golf experts and are built to last. The mats come with a foam base that's solid and stable, so there's no slipping. Plus, it helps absorb shock to reduce the risk of injury. These mats are ideal for home simulators, launch monitors, or even backyard practice. What's more, they're easy to replace when it's time for a fresh surface.
